- Take the N1 or N2 highways into Cape Town's CBD.
- You will see the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC) on your left and the entrance to the V&A Waterfront on your right.
- Do not turn, but carry on straight on Buitengracht Street.
- You will pass four sets of traffic lights before seeing Cape Town Lodge Hotel on your left hand side- an orange and charcoal colour building.

Overflow Parking

Free parking is provided for all Course Participants attending the training course with us.

However, please be advised that the hotel has very limited parking available. Should you arrive at the hotel and they won't let you park there because their parking is full please do not panic. Overflow parking is available and can be found at Heritage Square.

Please refer to the attached map which clearly points out where Heritage Square is with the red arrow.

Please remember that you must bring your parking ticket with you to the Alusani® registration table so that the hotel representative can stamp it for you before you leave. Please note that if you forget to bring your ticket with you and have to pay for your parking, Alusani® we will not be able to reimburse you for the parking funds paid.
